OS Explorer

The essential map for outdoor activities
1:25 000 scale (4cm to 1km or 2½ inches to 1 mile)

Our most detailed folding map. It's the one we recommend for anyone who is getting active outdoors -whether its mountain biking, horse-riding or just setting out on a really good walk.

Covers the whole of Great Britain with rights of way, permissive paths and bridleways, clearly marked together with useful landmarks such as pubs, youth hostels and visitor information.

Look for OL titles with a yellow flash on the front cover, including details of footpaths and routes in and around the National Parks.

OS Explorer Active

All OS Explorer titles come in a weatherproof Active version, so your customers can get outdoors all year round.

U DETAILED ROUTE DOWNLOAD

The views on this walk across open moorland, especially over west Devon, are amazing. Apart from the initial climb to Rippon Tor, this route offers dramatic and ever-changing views over Dartmoor for relatively little effort. This is very much a 'tor-bagging' walk that takes in Rippon Tor (the highest point on the walk at just over 1,551 feet (473m), Top Tor, Pil Tor and last, but not least, Buckland Beacon, which is a particularly outstanding viewpoint. There's also a very worthwhile detour to the attractive hamlet of Buckland in the Moor - a small group of thatched cottages nesting below the steep, wooded slopes of Buckland Beacon. This would be a difficult walk to follow in misty weather, without the tools to act as guides, unless you are competent in navigating in such conditions, so save it for a fine weather day to make the most of the amazing views and to safeguard route-finding.
